

Lighting the Way for Children in Egg Harbor Township

A book about EHT - written by the children of EHT!

Lighting the Way for Children in Egg Harbor Township was written by the first third and fourth grade students to attend the Dr. Joyanne D. Miller Elementary School in the 2003-2004 school year. The content was written exclusively by the students and teachers, based on their own research, with very few changes. The purpose of this book was that the children of Egg Harbor Township might learn more about the unique history and geography of the area in which they reside.
